For my son, Morgan.... not in the book, but always in my heart.

The images shown are not actual size. (The printed book is 8.5" square) This PDF file has been created with graphics that are not as rich as bright as in the printed book in order to minimize file sizes.

This is Emma.

She lives with her
two moms
and a chubby housecat.

Just so you know
who's who
let me tell you
that one of the moms
is Mama
and the other is Mommy.

That makes two.

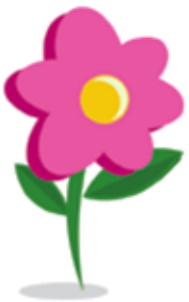

Turn the
page
and I'll tell their
kitty's story
to
you.

Emma
calls the cat,
“Meesha My Boy”
and wants to play
with him
like a toy.

She tries to pick up the cat.

But Mama says,
“DON’T DO THAT!”

Emma
puts him in a dress
and he cries,

But Mommy says,
“PLEASE STOP THAT NOW!”

Emma shares her
lollipop treat.

But Mama says,
“DON’T GIVE HIM CANDY TO EAT!”

Emma wants to tie shoes
on his paws.

But Mommy says,
“WATCH OUT FOR HIS CLAWS!”

Emma starts to paint him brown.

But Mama says,
“PUT THAT PAINT BRUSH DOWN!”

Emma hugs
and
kisses him twice.

Both Moms say,
“EMMA, THAT WAS NICE!”

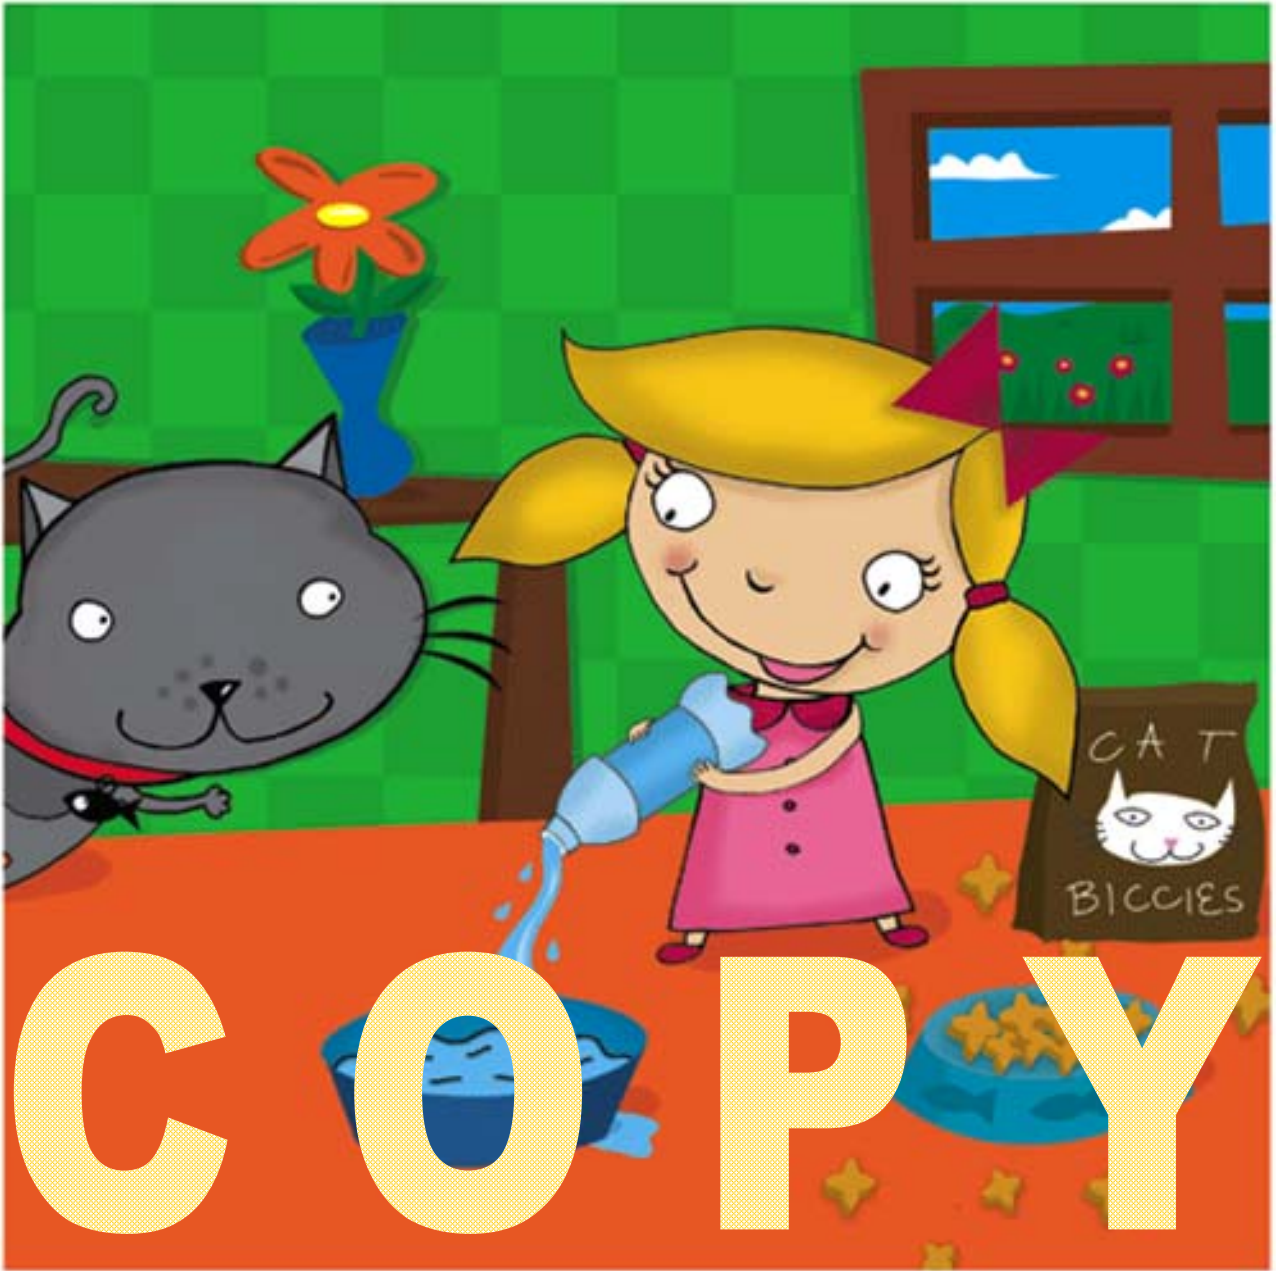

They tell her to be sweet

and

To make sure he has
water and food to eat.

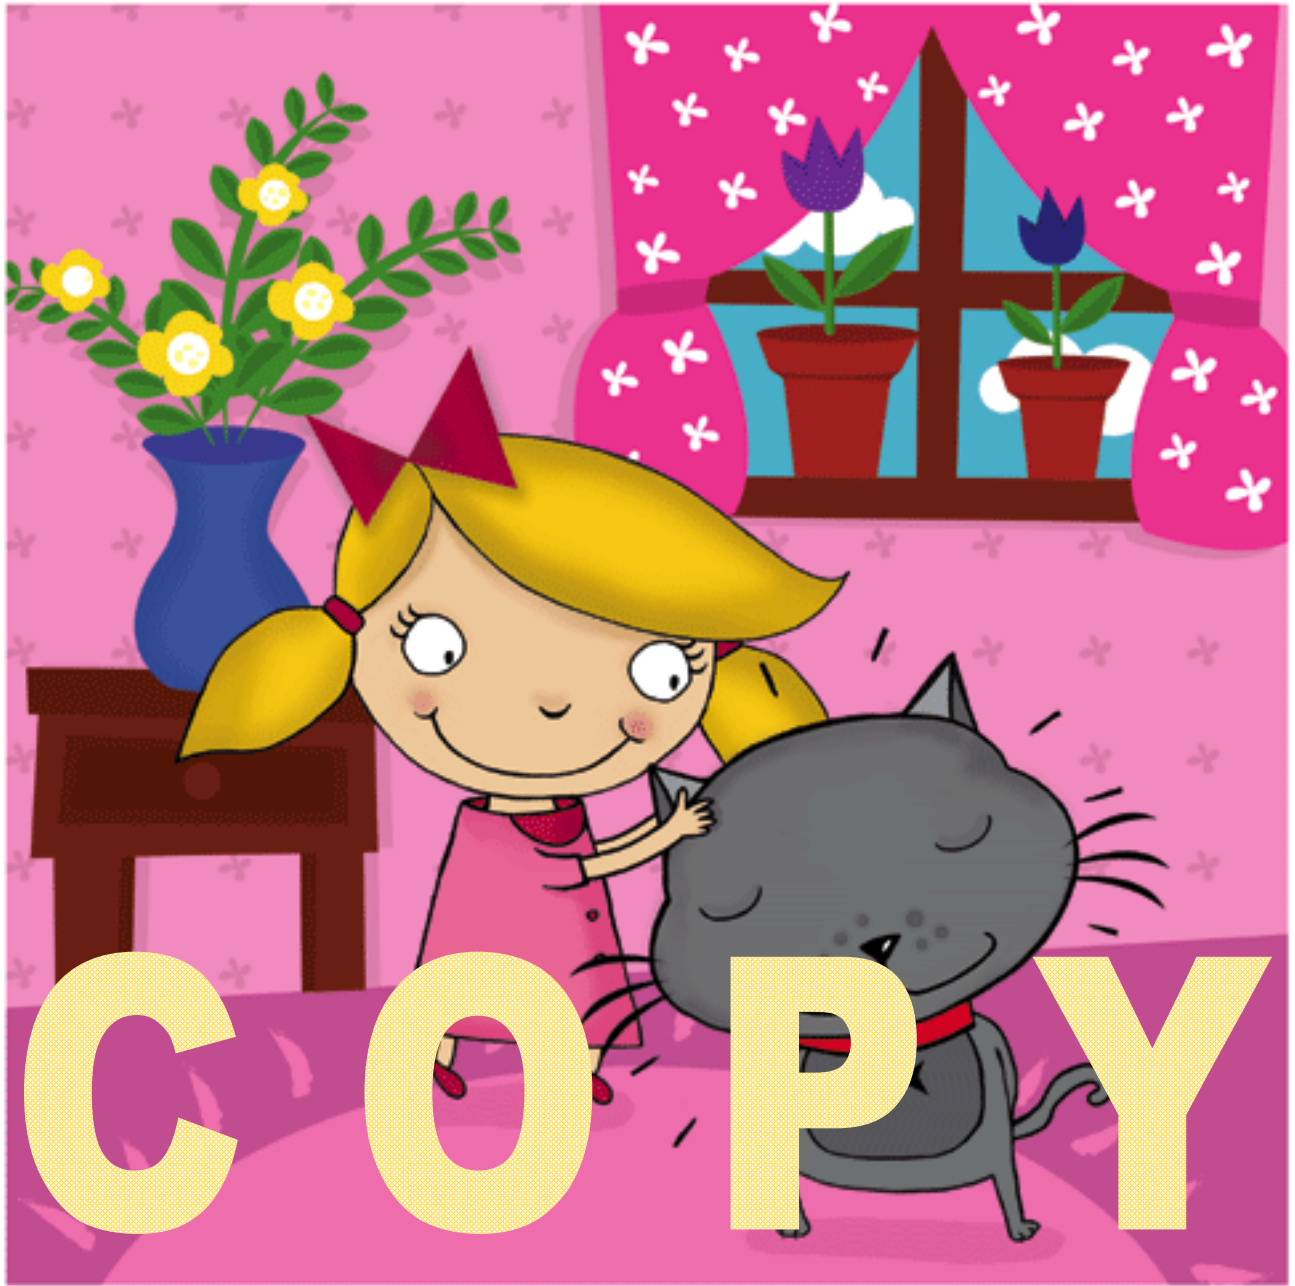

Pet his fuzzy fur
and
if you're kind to him,

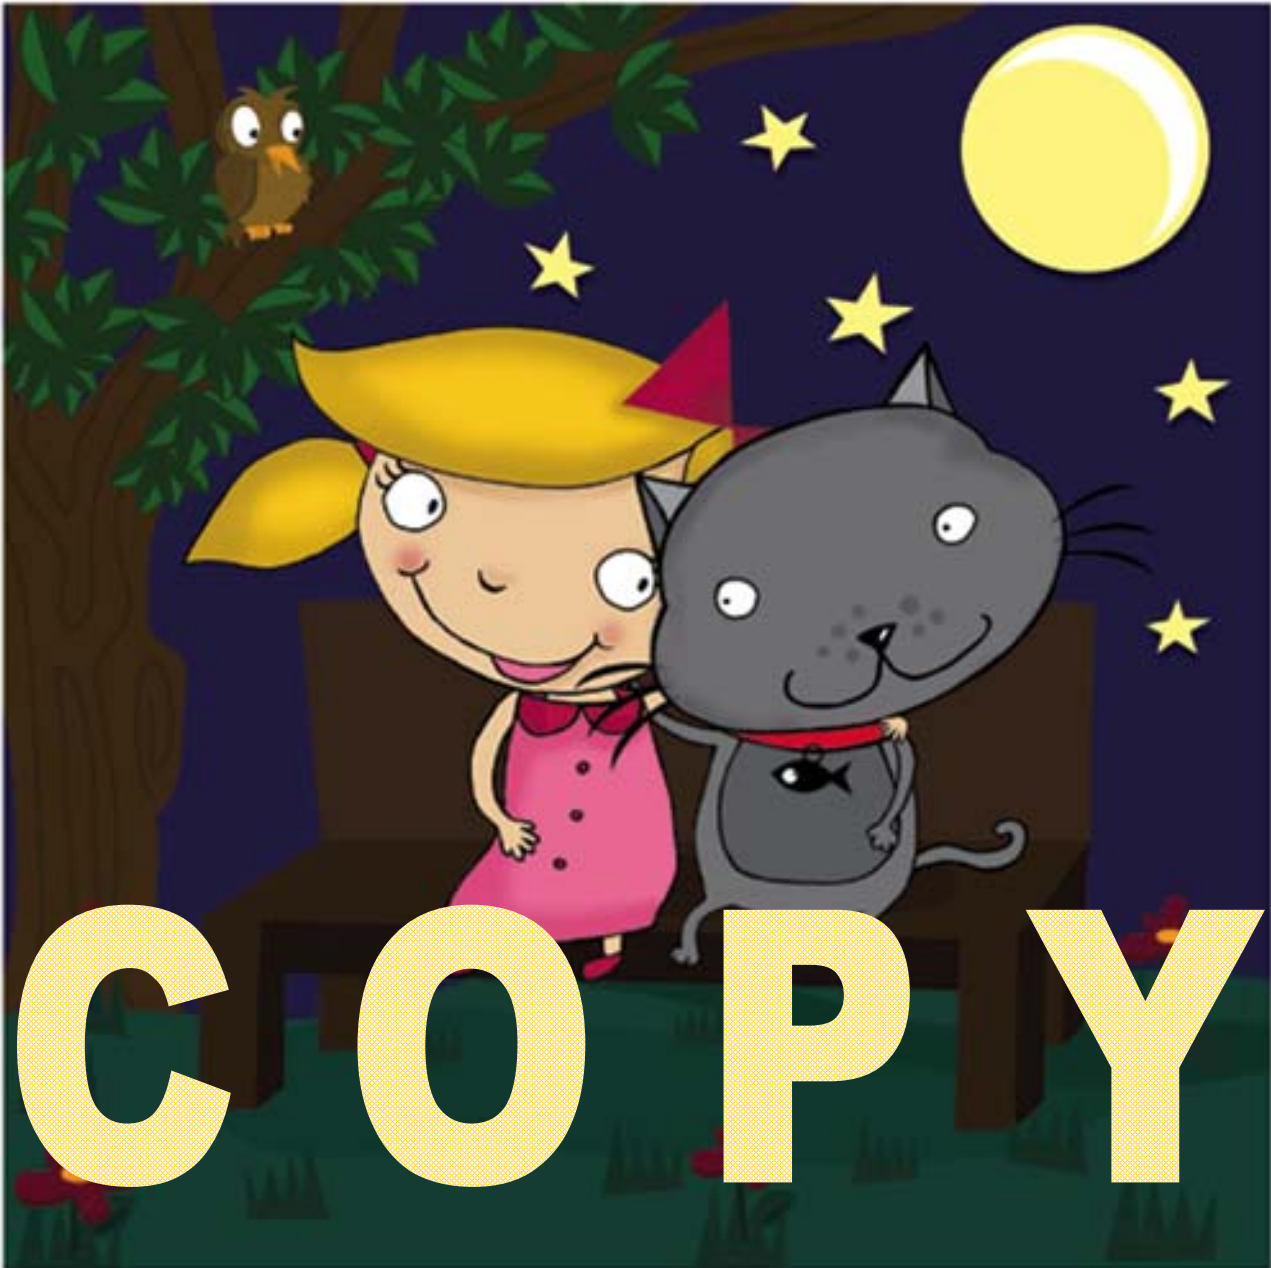

You'll hear his
purr.

Emma sat
and
cuddled him
from
head
to
toe.

It was good to hear
YES,

instead of hearing
NO.

The end.
